

Second Osnabrück Seminar on

PHILOSOPHY MEETS ECONOMICS -

ECONOMICS MEETS PHILOSOPHY

Seminar to be held at the economics department of the University of Osnabrück, May 13 – 15, 2010

Venue: Rolandstrasse 8, Sitzungszimmer, Erdgeschoss

May 13, 2010

3 pm. Welcome to the Seminar

3.15 – 4.15 Roberto Fumagalli, LSE, Philosophy

Five Questions on Neuroeconomics

4.15 – 4.45 Coffee and Tea

4.45 – 5.45 Stephan Sellmaier, Univ. of Munich, Philosophy

Neuro-Philosophy – Some Critical Methodological Reflections

5.45 – 6.45 Mozaffar Qizilbash, Univ. of York, Economics

Incommensurability and Vagueness

7 pm. Dinner in Town

May 14, 2010

9.00 – 10.00 Wilfried Hinsch, Univ. of Aachen, Philosophy

Capabilities, Justification and Reflective Equilibrium

10.00 - 11.00 Joris Gillet, Univ. of Osnabrück, Economics

Group and Individual Decision Making in Experimental Economics

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee and Tea

11.30 – 12.30 Erik Schokkaert, Univ. of Leuven and CORE

Why Empirical Social Choice?

Lunch

15.15 – 16.15 Conrad Heilmann, LSE, Philosophy

Measurement – Theoretic Foundations of Time Discounting

16.15 – 17.15 Martin Rechenauer, Univ. of Munich, Philosophy

Some Considerations Concerning Number Scepticism

17.15 – 17.45 Coffee and Tea

17.45 – 18.45 Katie Steele, LSE, Philosophy

Good's Theorem and the Principle of Total Evidence

7 pm. Dinner in Town

May 15, 2010

10.00 – 11.00 Jason Alexander, LSE, Philosophy

On the Emergence of Norms

11.00 – 12.00 Anindya Bhattacharya, Univ. of York, Economics

Allocative Efficiency and an Incentive Scheme for Research

End of Seminar, Lunch